BIOSKETCH

Dr. Thomas Miller graduated from Oberlin College and then attended the medical school at the University of North Carolina. He started his medicine and pediatric residency at the University of Rochester Affiliated Hospitals and completed it at North Carolina Memorial Hospital. He worked first at the Mary Imogene Bassett Hospital in Cooperstown NY and then returned to NC to work at the Moncure Community Health Center and went on to become medical director of OCCHS. He joined the UNC faculty in 1991. He maintains a busy practice at the Ambulatory Care Center and is involved with travel medicine, practice management, quality improvement, and the education of medical students and training of residents. He is interested in disease prevention, disease management, geriatrics, travel medicine, practice management and quality improvement. He is board certified in Internal Medicine, Pediatrics and Geriatrics. Dr. Miller and his wife, also an internist, enjoy the quiet life in rural Chatham County.
