PrEPing for 2017: North Carolina Moves Forward

September 9, 2016

The Hawthorne Inn and Conference Center, Winston-Salem, NC

11:30  Registration, Lunch, and Logistics

11:45  Welcome and review of summit goals (JT Williams, Community Health Interventions & Sickle Cell Agency, Inc.)

12:00  What’s the Urgency of PrEP 2017? (Lee Storrow, Executive Director, NCAAN)

12:10  What is PrEP and How Is It Working in the Real World? (Christopher Hurt, MD, UNC)

12:50  The State and PrEP/HIV in 2017: How to keep PrEP in the Forefront with Competing Priorities (Jacquelyn Clymore, MS, HIV/STD Director, Division of Public Health, Communicable Disease Branch)

1:00pm  Break

1:15  What Should Our PrEP Goals Be in 2017? Overview of breakout sessions; go to breakout sessions

*Health Departments: Local Health Departments talk about their experiences and goals

*Practicalities of PrEP: Paying for it and taking it (Or, You, Too Can be a PrEP Ambassador!)

*IVDU, Family Planning and PrEP

3:15  Debrief on breakouts (JT Williams and Lee Storrow)

3:30  Networking Exercise: Speed Dating (Michele Bailey, NCATEC Program Manager, UNC)

4:00  Wrap Up Exercise: What are YOUR PrEP Action Steps? (Michele Bailey)

4:15  Wrap up and next steps (including reminder about 5:30 to 7:30 reception) (Christina Adeleke, Communications and Advocacy Coordinator, NCAAN)