* Industry Expansion Solutions (formerly known as Industrial Extension Service) is the US 'oldest' (founded in 1955) and first of its kind engineering-based unit in the US focused on partnerships with business, industry, education and government to provide cutting-edge expertise, research, and technology. Industry Expansion Solutions is the designated state agency for the federal National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) and Manufacturing Extension Partnership (MEP). The Industrial Extension Service does not offer a tenure track.

 Bozeman Deaconess Hospital is now part of Bozeman Health with services that extend throughout southwestern Montana. The health system is comprised of two hospitals, several specialty treatment centers, a network of physician and urgent care clinics, outpatient treatment facilities, retirement and assisted living facilities, all staffed by hundreds of doctors, nurses, medical assistants, technologists, specialists, experts of many varieties and dedicated professionals.

Selected Informal Mentorship:

I have a somewhat unique role in the university. I'm a PhD/industrial engineer with a primary appointment in a clinical department. One of my primary assignments has been to help to apply industrial engineering (IE) principles, methods and tools to the radiation oncology clinic to improve quality and safety. As such, I have been conducting formal and informal training of employees throughout the department, including members of the Division of Healthcare Engineering (DHE), which I oversee. This consists of formal lectures as well as informal mentoring over time.
