

How I Read with My Child

I allow my child to choose the books we read.

Never       Sometimes       Always

I encourage my child to hold the book and turn the pages.

Never       Sometimes       Always

I enjoy reading with my child.

Never       Sometimes       Always

I use book-reading time for conversations with my child.

Never       Sometimes       Always

I don't hurry through the book. I wait to see what my child will say or be interested in.

Never       Sometimes       Always

I point out pictures and name the objects or actions.

Never       Sometimes       Always

I allow my child to do something else when he/she is tired of reading together, even if we didn't finish the book.

Never       Sometimes       Always

When my child makes a comment about a picture, I don't ignore it—I respond by making a related comment.
