Department of Allied Health Attendance Policy

- Students are expected to attend all scheduled class sessions, laboratory sessions and clinical placements/rotations/fieldwork.
- It is the students’ responsibility to notify the course instructor if they must miss a class due to unforeseen circumstances.
- Students are responsible for all the coursework in all classes.
- Absences may be excused or unexcused.
  - Excused absences include University Approved Absences. Other excused absences must be granted by the student’s program or instructor.
  - Unexcused absences may reflect negatively on a student’s professionalism and evaluated accordingly.
- Students should refer to their program policies and their course syllabi for additional information on attendance.
- DAHS attendance policies are consistent with UNC-Chapel Hill policies:
