

Table 1: Maternal care provider perceptions on successes and areas for improvement in provision of high-quality care

Successes	Areas for improvement
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Providing timely, risk-appropriate responses and offering reassurance that, “We’ve got you.”• Supporting patients in understanding their health status.• Minimizing patients’ fear or anxiety.• Addressing health warning signs.• Establishing that hypertensive concerns are not “finished” following delivery.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Committing to follow-up connections to address topics including recommended clinical visits• Emotionally supporting patients with outpatient and inpatient healthcare encounters.• Acknowledging new parents may have limited ability to devote time to their health.• Exhibiting variable awareness that patients may have limited understanding of cardiac risk.• Establishing adequate access to aggregate patient outcomes.