

LSL JUNCTION

The LSL JUNCTION is an eight week, online course designed to provide the basic knowledge, tools and resources in Listening and Spoken Language therapy. Participants will explore LSL topics through readings, videos and application assignments. The group will meet virtually with instructors to review the learning from that specific week. Next offering is for January 25th.

Topics addressed by week:

Week 1 - What is a Listening and Spoken Language Specialist?

Week 2 - Audiology 101

Week 3 - Auditory Brain Development, Function and Strategies

Week 4 - Auditory Memory & Auditory Learning- Part 1

Week 5 - Auditory Memory & Auditory Learning- Part 2

Week 6 - Language Development & Strategies

Week 7 - Speech Development

Week 8 - Parent Participation Sessions & Strengths Based Coaching

ASHA and LSLS continuing education credits will be available. Cost of this training is $350. If you work for the state of North Carolina, there is no charge. Course is offered three times a year beginning in September, January, and June.

For further information please contact Lillian Henderson:

Lillian.henderson@unhealth.unc.edu