

UNC Physicians Clinical Leadership Program

Addressing the need for advanced leadership training for UNC SOM Faculty, UNC PN, UNC Rex, UNC Caldwell
Physicians and Advanced Practice Providers

Program Outcomes

- Enhancing interpersonal skills
- Succession planning
- Change management
- Relational centered leadership
- Strategic thinking
- Skill-building

Program Logistics

1. The Leadership Challenge (James Kouzes and Barry Posner)
2. Bi-Monthly sessions for core leadership principles (required)
3. Optional Special Interest sessions focusing on requested leadership topics
4. Virtual and in-person sessions conducted Jan - Nov 2022

Click Here For Program Application

Applications can be submitted from Aug 2 – Sept 12, 2021. Applicants must submit an essay, and a letter of recommendation from their current Supervisor or Dept Chair (or designee) is required.

Leadership Practice Model

Model The Way

January 11, 2022- In Person

Leadership Practices by Kouzes & Posner / 5 Dynamics / Peer Mentoring

February 8, 2022 Special Interest:
Emotional Intelligence

Inspire a Shared Vision

March 8, 2022- Virtual

Conflict Management & the Skill of Negotiation/ Negotiation in Contracts

April 12, 2022 Special Interest: Legal Considerations / Risk Management/Just Culture

Enable Others to Act

May 10, 2022- In Person

Health Equity & Diversity in Healthcare / Relational Leadership @Carolina

June 14, 2022 - Virtual

Desert Survival Situation / Succession Planning

August 9, 2022 Special Interest:
Healthcare Finance

Challenge the Process

September 13, 2022- Virtual

Driving Innovation in Clinical Care / Change Management & Coaching

October 11, 2022 Special Interest: APP Leadership Career Paths

Encourage the Heart

November 9, 2022- In Person

Vanderbilt Model / Finding your Leadership Voice