The Honor Code at a glance . . . (for more specific information, please refer to http://instrument.unc.edu)

1. May not lie, cheat, or steal
2. Must not impair the welfare or educational opportunities of others in the community
3. May not do anything to harm the university community

How to report a possible violation . . .

1. Online at http://honor.unc.edu. Click on “For Faculty.” Select “Handling and Reporting Violations.”
2. Contact the Student Attorney General via email, phone, or personal meeting.

How you can help students avoid violations . . .

1. Become aware of provisions of the Honor Code.
2. Communicate expectations regarding student conduct (particularly relating to collaboration, use of sources, and rules governing examinations and assignments).
3. Use good judgment in developing and administering examinations.
4. Provide necessary oversight, report incidents of misconduct, and cooperate with the relevant Student Attorney General’s office.
5. Become involved in the Honor System by exploring issues of academic integrity in the classroom, encouraging academic departments and colleagues to take such matters seriously, and participating in educational initiatives and faculty governance responsibilities.

If you have any questions concerning the UNC-SOM Honor System, please do not hesitate to contact the Student Attorney General. My contact information is listed below.

SOM Honor Court Website
http://www.med.unc.edu/wrkunits/orgs/honorct/index.htm

UNC Honor System Website
http://honor.unc.edu

Stephen A. Wheless
Student Attorney General
stephen_wheless@med.unc.edu
336-339-8793