

Grand Rounds CME/MOC Dec 3, 2020

1. What percent of esophageal adenocarcinoma presents at a late stage?

- A. 30%
- B. 60%
- C. 90%

Answer: C

2. Which of the following is strongly associated with the risk of adenocarcinoma of the esophagus?

- A. Obesity
- B. Coronary artery disease
- C. COPD
- D. Esophageal varices

Answer: A

3. Which of the following is a true statement?

- A. GERD symptoms and frequency are good predictors of the presence of Barrett's esophagus
- B. The proportion of esophageal adenocarcinoma with known Barrett's esophagus is small
- C. Barrett's esophagus is due to dysplastic changes in esophageal epithelial squamous cells

Answer: B

4. Bonus Question. The lower esophageal sphincter is innervated by:

- A. Parasympathetic nerves
- B. Sympathetic nerves
- C. A and B

Answer: C