

1. Which of the following statements can be seen in the imposter syndrome?
  - A. I am not as qualified for my current role as others think I am.
  - B. I do not trust co-workers to accept my self-doubts if I disclose them
  - C. I wonder if I really deserve my current work role
  - D. All of the above

Answer: D

2. Which of the following has a positive correlation with Imposter syndrome?
  - A. Career satisfaction
  - B. Leadership role
  - C. Work experience ( <1 year)
  - D. Authenticity

Answer: C

3. In the study that Dan Cable did with the Harvard Kennedy School, the key finding was:
  - A. Team effectiveness was improved if team members felt socially valued.
  - B. Team effectiveness was improved if team members were age and sex matched
  - C. Team effectiveness was improved if team members were matched by vocation.

Answer: A

4. Bonus Question: Ferdinand Demara is known in history as the "Great Imposter." Among his impersonations, the most daring was as a:
  - A. College professor
  - B. Trauma surgeon
  - C. Prison warden
  - D. Trappist monk

Answer: B