

233

women received treatment from UNC Horizons

70 percent of graduates were employed at time of graduation

95

percent of graduates had favorable Child Protective Services outcomes

51

healthy babies were born to Horizons women

65

children were served in our onsite childcare center

27

of N.C.'s 100 counties were represented by Horizons women

5,600

people around the country and world were touched by UNC Horizons' evidence-based model through consultations, trainings, seminars and conferences.

UNC HORIZONS AT SHELTON STATION IS THRIVING WITH

A BRAND NEW PRENATAL CLINIC, GROUP TREATMENT SPACES, 5-STAR CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER, MATERNAL-CHILD THERAPY ROOMS, FAMILY & COMMUNITY KITCHEN, DONATIONS ROOM

$500k received to study the impact UNC Horizons makes in the lives of women and their children and break new ground on trauma-responsive care that heals the whole patient.

Collaborating Across Carolina

UNC Gillings School of Global Public Health
UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School
UNC School of Medicine
UNC School of Social Work
UNC Birth Partners
UNC Board of Trustees
UNC School of Dentistry
UNC Department of Psychology
UNC Department of Human Development and Family Studies

Sharing With The World

- ✦ Co-authored Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration's (SAMHSA) Clinical Guidance for Treating Pregnant Women with Opioid Use Disorder and Their Infants
- ✦ Contracted with intergovernmental organization to create women's training courses on addiction treatment for providers worldwide
- ✦ Welcomed visiting scholars from other states and countries

HELP US HEAL GENERATIONS OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN

- ❑ To schedule a tour or explore volunteer opportunities, contact Rachel Middlesteadt Ellerson, Executive Manager, at 919-966-9803 or rachelm@unc.edu.
- ❑ For giving opportunities, visit unchorizons.org or contact Jodie Gisser, Director of Development – Women's Health, at 919-843-9898 or jodie_gisser@med.unc.edu.

