

UNC Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility Program Structure

Year 1	Block	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
		August	September	October	November	December	January	February	March	April	May	June	July
	Rotation Name	Diagnostic Testing	Diagnostic Testing	Diagnostic Testing	R/A&E	ART	ART	ART	ART	ART	ART	ART	ART	ART
		Clinical Consults
Site	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1

Year 2	Block	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
		August	September	October	November	December	January	February	March	April	May	June	July
	Rotation Name	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R
		Clinical Consults
Site	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1

R=Research

Year 3	Block	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
		August	September	October	November	December	January	February	March	April	May	June	July
	Rotation Name	ART	ART	ART	ART	Specialty	Specialty	Specialty	Specialty	Specialty	R/A&E	E	E	E
		Clinical Consults
Site	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1

Diagnostic Testing- Ultrasound (GYN, follicle, OB), HSG, SIS

Research (R)- research, coursework

ART- oocyte retrieval, transfer, IUI, cycle management, OR one day a week, fertility preservation consultations

Clinical Consults- observation first 3 months, then consultations/return patient visits with faculty supervision (doc of the day is the supervisor). Cut-off new patients March 1st of third year. Rotation ends April 30th of third year. This is a longitudinal rotation consisting of 2 half days per week on all rotations except for research. On research, 1 half day per week.

Specialty- Med endocrine, pediatric endocrine, genetics, male fertility clinics

Andrology & Embryology (A&E)- observation, hands-on experience, QA/QC in the lab

Electives (E) -

1. QI project
2. Research