

Resident Physician Global Health Scholarship Application (2022-2023)

Please visit the Office of Global Health Education website for a full description of requirements.

1. SUMMARY

Due dates:

September 15/March 15

LOR's due on October 1/April 1

Eligibility

Individual UNC/H resident physicians and fellows under GME applying to the UNC Global Health Travel Scholarship. In order for a resident to apply, applicants must be in good professional standing and commit to a minimum of a two week global health rotation (four weeks strongly encouraged). Funding for retroactive rotations are not considered. Further, if an applicant has already received a former OGHE global health travel award, they are not eligible to receive another travel award for the same proposal. However, applicants can be funded twice for global health travel for different global health proposals. Awards range between $500-$2,000.

Applications and letters of recommendation should be sent to Moira in pdf format.
