What are we celebrating this month?

- Did you know May 1, 2023 - May 31, 2023 is Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month? The month of May was chosen because it commemorates the migration of the first immigrants from Japan to the United States on May 7, 1843 and to celebrate the completion of the transcontinental railroad by over 20,000 Asian immigrants on May 10, 1869.
- Cinco de Mayo is celebrated on May 5, 2023. Cinco de Mayo celebrates the anniversary of Mexico’s defeat of the Second French Empire at the Battle of Puebla in 1862. However, Cinco de Mayo didn’t become popular until the rise of the Chicano Movement in the 1940s.
- “Sooner or later, we all quote our mothers!” Sunday, May 14, 2023 is Mother’s Day!
- May 20, 2023 is Armed Forces Day in which we pay tribute to men and women who currently serve in the United States’ armed forces.
- On May 29, 2023 (Memorial Day), we remember all men and women who have died while serving in the military for the United States of America.

All in a Day’s Work!
A team member’s son was home sick recently, and the following conversation ensued:
Son: “Mom, I have to feel better.”
Team member: “Oh yeah? Why do you have to feel better?”
Son: “I have to feel better because I have contracts that I need to review.”

Our dedication to contract review begins early! 😊
