Friday, June 2, 2017

1:00 pm  Presentation of Chief Residents’ Research Papers
          Paul S. Weinhold, Ph.D., Moderator

          Are Provider Volume or Other Hospital Characteristics Related to Outcomes in Orthopaedic Care?
          Carter Clement, M.D.

          Effect of Glycemic Control on Complications in Diabetic Ankle Fractures
          Kevin Haddix, M.D.

          Implications of Experience on Screw Selection in a Small Bone Model.
          Edward Jernigan, M.D.

2:30 pm  Coffee

3:00 pm  Presentation of Chief Residents’ Research Papers (cont’d)

          Peri-articular Vascular Malformations: A Retrospective Review
          James Norris, M.D.

          Initial Medical Management of Rotator Cuff Tears: A Demographic Analysis of Surgical and Nonsurgical Treatment in the United States Medicare Population
          Dax Varkey, M.D.

4:00 pm  Presentation by Christopher M. Larson, MD.
          Femoroacetabular Impingement: Diagnosis, Management, Outcomes

Saturday, June 3, 2017

8:30 am  Breakfast

9:00 am  Case Presentations by UNC residents: Sports Hip and Knee Diagnosis and Management

10:15 am  Meniscal Root Tears: Identification, Natural History and Treatment
          Ganesh Kamath, MD
10:30 am  The Role of Extra-articular Lateral Augmentation in ACL reconstruction and the Anterolateral Ligament, My European Perspective.
Alex Creighton, MD

10:45 am  3-D Printing and Tissue Engineering of Knee Tissues: The UNC/NCSU Experience
Jeffrey Spang, MD

11:00 am  THE FORTY-FOURTH ANNUAL RANEY VISITING PROFESSORSHIP:
Christopher M. Larson, MD
Hip and Groin Disorders in Athletes: Prevention, Treatment, or Benign Neglect

12:00pm  Alumni Photograph, Luncheon and Alumni Annual Meeting

1:00pm  Meeting close