UNC Global Radiology Program Summary

Advancing health equity through education, collaboration, and innovation

Inception to Date Snapshot (2013 - 2020)

- 22 residents with global health participation
- 16 staff (nurses/technologists) volunteering
- 5 MS4s with global radiology involvement
- 5 textbook chapters Radiology in Global Health
- 7 refereed manuscripts
- 16 conference presentations and invited lectures
- 3 conference posters
- 3 resident UNC School of Medicine presentations

$30,497 in external global health funding awards

$74,365 given by UNC Global Radiology faculty and friends through RAD-AID International to purchase an ultrasound unit and to sponsor formal education for 7 Malawian radiology colleagues

$18,241 raised via the Global Radiology Initiatives fund 1 February 2020 – 9 November 2020 with the UNC Health Foundation

$123,103 total in extradepartmental funding inception to date

Updated 28 November 2020
Refereed Published Manuscripts

In Press and Accepted Refereed Articles

Published Additional Scholarship

2. McGinty K. Abdominal Wall and Diaphragm Case Conference. Presented at: Kamuzu Central Hospital, Lilongwe, Malawi; November 2020; Virtual.

Conference Posters

UNC School of Medicine Presentations

1. Burke K, Campbell J, Budd K, Mossa-Basha M, Wallace J, Murdock B. A case study of pediatric radiology educational intervention in global health. Presented at: UNC Department of Radiology Grand Rounds; March 2019; Chapel Hill, NC.

Departmental Contributions to the textbook: Radiology in Global Health, 2nd Edition

Associate Editor - Lourens du Pisanie, MD; Assistant Editors - Joshua Harford, MD, and Rupali Sood, MD

Service to the Profession

3. Stewart JK. SIR Medical Student Section Global Health Committee Faculty Mentor 2018 - present.

