Beyond Our Beginnings: 50 Years of Bioethics

Friday, 5 April 2019
8:30am-6:00pm

The Mews, Graylyn International Conference Center,
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

In recognition of the Hastings Center's 50th anniversary, this conference surveys the past, present, and future of bioethics scholarship, practice, and policy.

The program addresses a broad range of issues and topics, including medical and research ethics, health disparities and health equity, health law, policy, and financing, and the history and philosophy of bioethics.

It features internationally renowned senior scholars in bioethics from the Southeast and Midatlantic regions whose work has shaped the field. They will reflect on where we have been and where we should be going.

Registration is free but required. Space is limited. Register here:
