

Clinical Ethics Grand Rounds

Co-Hosted with the Department of Surgery

Controversies In Increasing Living Kidney Donation

Arthur Matas, M.D.

Professor of Surgery
University of Minnesota

All are welcome

7:15am – 8:15am

Wednesday, January 29th

Old Clinic Auditorium (4th floor)

As the former Director of Renal Transplant Services at his institution and a former President of the American Society of Transplant Surgeons, Dr. Matas continues to be a leader in the field of transplant surgery. He has published extensively on clinical and ethical considerations in organ donation and transplantation.

Jointly sponsored by the UNC Center for Bioethics and the UNC Hospital Ethics Committee, Clinical Ethics Grand Rounds offers an innovative and interactive forum for engaging with ethical, legal, and policy issues of particular salience to patient care within the hospital. There are no commercial support or conflicts of interest to report.
