

September 13 Individualization Phase Committee Meeting

- Welcome/Introduce new members
 - Dr. Kristin Allinger
- Approval of August Meeting Minutes
- Student Update: Alicia Anderson
 - Exciting time for Indy Phase students with ERAS supplemental applications closing Friday, ERAS opens to program Sept 28
 - NMRP opens Thursday
 - AOA elections underway, students will be notified this week
- Campus Update
 - Asheville- no updates
 - WakeMed in Raleigh- no updates
 - Wilmington- no updates
 - Charlotte- voting on approving another course
- Dashboard
 - Approving new courses at Greensboro and Charlotte class
- Individualization Phase Learning Environment: Dr. Kristy Borawski (Director of Learning Environment)
 - Mistreatment reports by phase and campus
 - Most reports of mistreatment triaged as “mild”
- AY 2021-2022 ACS Course Review: Dr. Morgan McEachern, ACS Course Director
 - Continues to be a highly rated course
 - Quality of teaching rated highly (faculty & residents/fellows)
 - Clinical supervision generally rated highly
 - Direct observation has room for improvement, although improved from years prior
 - Highly rated learning environment, few episodes of mistreatment that are being addressed
 - Added professional growth assessment
- Curriculum Update – CBA/Name/Graphic (Dr. Mary Hauser, Seth Alexander)
 - General curriculum updates
 - New TEC graphic
 - Competency-Based Assessment Taskforce work
 - 6 main competencies
 - Each competency is an observable professional activity w/ each competency is accompanied by set of 6 milestone